Contractor Expense Acknowledgment

The independent contractor is responsible for their own vehicle, fuel, maintenance, insurance, phone/data, taxes, and other operating expenses unless ANU Transportation states otherwise in writing. An optional or company-authorized fuel card may be available for an assignment, and any fuel-card charges used by the contractor may be deducted from contractor settlement/pay as authorized. Costs for required background check, MVR/DMV report, and drug screening may be deducted from the contractor's first payment/settlement when applicable and authorized.

☐ I have read the contractor expense acknowledgment for independent contractor assignments.

PDF document boxes are a preparation checklist only. This PDF does not upload or transmit files. Use ANU's approved private process when available.

13 Applicant acknowledgment

I certify that the information provided in this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand the current assignment terms, including the recurring schedule, reporting location in Stone Mountain, Georgia, SUV or crossover SUV requirement, and that payment is for completed service weeks. I understand routes and schedules must be completed as assigned, approval is subject to screening and onboarding, and submitting this application does not guarantee an assignment or future work. I understand that future assignments may have different pay, schedules, locations, vehicle requirements, and client requirements. I also understand that ANU Transportation Services LLC may require additional documentation, screening, training, insurance, licensing, certifications, background screening, Motor Vehicle Record (MVR) review, drug screening, or other qualifications depending on the requirements of a particular client, route, project, or contract.

☐ I have read and agree to the Applicant Acknowledgment, including the current assignment terms and contractor responsibilities. *
